

INVITATION

IDAHOT – CLASS OF 2015

My Sexuality, My gender expression, My uniform, My right, My space...

On: Saturday 28 March
At: Constitutional Hill Precinct, Braamfontein, Johannesburg
From: 10:00 – 16:00 (registration 09:30 - 09:50)

School uniforms are very gendered: girls must wear skirts and boys must wear pants. Many Lesbian, Gay and Transgender learners in South Africa experience discrimination and find themselves being ridiculed, taunted and shamed, often by those in positions of power when they don't conform to these strict gender roles.

The theme for the 2015 International Day Against Homophobia and Transphobia (IDAHOT) is youth speaking out against discrimination, based on their Sexual Orientation and Gender Identities. We invite you, as activists and learners to collectively amplify messages that express your needs, in preparation of the IDAHOT - Class of 2015 campaign.

Please join us on this important day and make your voices heard.

RSVP - before 26 March 2015
