

Dignity, Equality and Freedom

IRANTI PUBLIC CALL FOR 2019 BOARD MEMBERS:

Irantí has a vacancy for a Board Member to serve in the position of Treasurer. The Board comprises of seven members and the Executive Director. The Board is responsible for the good governance of the organisation and has fiduciary responsibilities in its oversight of Iranti's finances and assets. Board members adhere to a board charter and the relevant laws related to its mandate.

Irantí is a Johannesburg-based regional non-profit organisation (NPO) founded in June 2012 to focus on Lesbian, Transgender and Intersex (LTI) rights. Our vision is to build local partnerships and movements to advocate for the rights and recognition of LTI persons across Africa through the tactical use of multi-media platforms, advocacy, research and documentation.

Irantí envisions a just world where everyone lives with dignity, equality and freedom, and where diversity in sex, gender and sexuality are celebrated freely.

TIME COMMITMENTS

Board members are expected to commit the time necessary to attend quarterly Board and Board Committee meetings. Board members are also required to allocate time to prepare for meetings.
